The following enumerated properties are for sale and information concerning them may be had upon application at the HERALD office:

1.—A row of frame houses containing apartments for six families. Will net at least 15 per cent on the price asked. Location in the heart of Shenandoah.

2.—A splendid factory site, 50x200 feet in size, in the heart of Shenandoah, and including large building. Cheap.

3.—Lot and large building with railroad at front and rear, with or without 6 horse power engine, boiler and shafting. Splendid building for a factory.

4.—An elegant new house in Pottsville, complete in every detail, all conveniences, large and high rooms. Lot 60x170 feet. Large henney.

USE WELLS' LAUNDRY BLUE, the best thing for laundry use. Each package makes two quarts. Sold by Clackley Bros.

"New York Day by Day."

Messrs. Melville and Thompson are now on their second annual tour with their beautiful and realistic pictures, "New York Day by Day." It is a charming picture of life in a great city and kept the many spectators in an enjoyable condition until the fall of the curtain in the final act. The production is certainly very interesting and tells the fortunes and misfortunes of Polly Horn, a blind flower girl, who has staunch friends and implacable enemies.

The company engaged is a strong one and proved well suited for the work in hand. Mr. Geo. W. Thompson, a popular Philadelphia favorite, and one of the founders of the Order of Elks, made an amusing figure as Moses Yopp, a German sausage vender. Alex Vincent, an elegant "all around actor," was very good in the role of Joe Harris, a footpad. And the rest of the characters were satisfactorily taken by Miss Emma de Castro, Miss Florence Stone, Miss Grace Nagle, Mr. Alfred Hampton, Mr. H. J. Stone, A. W. Clarke, and others. The scenery is realistic and the stage settings effective.—Philadelphia Ledger, Aug. 30, 1902. Will appear at Ferguson's theatre on September 8.

A Wedding.

Moses Rubinsky, of town, and Miss Annie Silverman, of Pleasant Hill, were married last week, at the latter place, and returned to town Thursday, where they will make their future home. Among those in attendance at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Harris Seff, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lauterstein, Levi Refowich, Max Supowitz and wife, Samuel Block and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goldin, of town, and J. Leberman and wife, of Pottsville. A notable feature of the wedding was the frequent change of dress made by one of the guests. The ceremony took place between 4 and 6 o'clock, during which time three changes were made. The lady first wore a wine color dress, then a black satin, and lastly a brown linen. The contracting parties have the well wishes of the HERALD for their future happiness.

Long Row in a Novel Boat.

MICHAEL CITY, Ind., Sept. 4.—Frank Apply, of Rhode Island, arrived in this port, having rowed the entire distance from Pawtucket, R. I., in a boat eighteen feet long, made of aluminum. He left Pawtucket June 3, and must be in Chicago this evening.

Railroad Employees Accept a Reduction

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 4.—The Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway employees last night presented to Major Thomas, president of the company, a signed agreement accepting the 10 per cent reduction for ninety days.

To Revise the Belgian Constitution.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 4.—The bill for the revision of the Belgian constitution was passed by the senate by a large majority.

FRACKVILLE.

Miss Katie Berkhauser, of Olivet, near Scranton, is the guest of her uncle, Alex. Scott.

Mrs. J. J. McCormick and her son, Vincent, were the guests of L. Anstok.

Mrs. John Dawson and Mrs. T. Johnson, of St. Clair, were the guests of Mrs. John Kreeker during the week.

Our townsmen, John Lauck and Orville Miller, arrived home on Sunday, and Harry Scott, Harry Dingle and James Johnson on Tuesday, from the World's Fair.

Prof. L. K. Witmer, superintendent of the Landford schools, was a welcome visitor to town on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Evans were the guests of George Palmer, of Orwigburg, during the week.

Miss Bertha Ivory returned home on Thursday from a week's pleasant visit to Bloomburg.

Mrs. T. E. Short, of St. Clair, and Miss H. Hunt, of Philadelphia, were the guests of Mrs. R. C. Hunt during the week.

Intelligence has been received of the serious illness of Miss Mamie Scott, of town, who, while visiting friends at Girardville, was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism. At this writing she is reported to be seriously ill.

A horse dealer from Idaho with a cow boy contingent, has been the source of attraction during the week. The way that they lassoed the horses simply made the small boy of this vicinity dance with delight. A number of urchins now carry a rope with the conventional noose and are to be seen daily practicing on the stumps.

Misses Minnie Woe and Lizzie Herman, of Pottsville, were the guests of friends in town over Sunday.

John Panley has purchased a thorough bred, which is claimed in the 230 class, and some fine trotting is anticipated.

Mrs. F. Keller, of St. Clair, was a town visitor on Friday.

Mrs. Stewart, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Morgan, of Nice street, John Gerber, who had been seriously ill, is convalescing.

On Monday while compiling cars at Mahanoy Plane, Thomas Carr, of town, got his arm between the bumpers, resulting in a very severe squeeze.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, THE "THE KIND THAT CURES."

MAHANOY PLANE.

The Lithuanian Band, of Shenandoah, appeared on our streets on Thursday evening and rendered some of their choice selections.

Thomas, son of Jeremiah O'Connor, was struck by an electric car while returning from work Tuesday. Fortunately he was not slightly hurt.

The painting boom appears to have struck town. Several houses have received a much needed coat of paint which adds very much to the appearance.

Daniel Beardon, who is now staying in town, received three dispatches from New York during the week, urging him to fight the middle weight champion of Boston the first week in September. New York will back Dan to any amount. As prize fighting requires previous training and it would be impossible for him to train sufficiently in such a short time, he is compelled to refuse the offer, though anxious to have a chance if given time.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McCarthy lost an interesting three year-old child by death Saturday.

Mrs. Thos. Fitzpatrick left for Chicago Monday. After viewing the sights at the World's Fair she will sojourn a few weeks among friends in Iowa.

The practice prevalent among the boys in town of putting torpedoes on the rails of the electric road should be prohibited. Passengers of nervous temperaments are completely shocked by the act.

Miss Mary Burke, one of Locust Gap's fair maidens, was the guest of Miss Mamie Munley Tuesday.

The benefits derived from the law compelling school districts to furnish all books is just now being appreciated by parents, especially by those who have several children attending school. In these days of financial stringency many would find it difficult to purchase the necessary outfit.

Points.

The only change Labor Day made in town was to close the banks.

The children are again wending their ways to the public schools.

The bell will soon ring for the straw hat. The dog days are gone but the cat naps are still with us.

It is quite dusk now in the evenings by half past seven o'clock.

Next Thursday will be Pennsylvania Day at the World's Fair.

Hickory Ridge colliery at Shamokin resumed operations to-day. It had been idle since August 10th on account of the dull coal trade.

Two Shamokin young men, A. M. Gable and Frank Leader, have just completed a tour of 500 miles on their bicycles.

Died.

SCOTT.—On the 2nd inst., at St. Clair, Pa. Martin Scott. Funeral on Tuesday, 5th inst., leaving St. Clair on the 11:45 a. m. Pennsylvania R. ...SUMMER...
CLOSING SALE!

To make room for new fall goods which are soon to arrive, we have marked down our prices on all summer goods, and in order to do so quickly, have cut deep. Saturday, September 2d, is "Labor Day." On that day and the Friday morning previous, we will make surprising reductions all over our big store. Not only in one department, but in all departments. Price is no object.

COMMENCING in our Millinery Department you will find offers unparalleled by others elsewhere. Examine the Beautiful Pictures at prices less than half their value. In our Coat Room you will find bargains in Ladies' Muslin Underwear, Lace Curtains, Chenille Curtains, a few Summer Wreps, etc. Coming into the main storeroom you will see bargains right and left in Dress Goods, Notions, Fancy Goods, Underwear (ladies' and gent's), Hosiery, Linens, Laces, Embroideries, Corsets, Goggles, etc. Examination with observation are the two best means of being able to appreciate these offers. Come early and make your selections, as the best will not be the last.

The details of this special sale will be more fully explained through the medium of the press. Watch for a circular at your door, as circulars will be distributed all over the county. Don't fail to read it. The time—morning of September 1st, and all day September 2d, 1893.
